SCSEP ENROLLMENT CRITERIA

What is SCSEP? – Senior Community Service Employment Program

- SCSEP is a job training program for unemployed (low income) people age 55 or older with low employment prospects.
- Participants are placed in part-time community service assignments at local organizations (called Host Agencies) to gain experience and increasing marketable skills to transition to a permanent job.
- Authorized by Title V of the Older Americans Act and funded by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Goals of SCSEP

- Upgrade job skills and work experience through hands-on experience at the host agency.
- Learn new job skills that are needed in today's workplace.
- Serve communities while expanding skills and earning an income.
- Paid training while preparing for and seeking a job.
- The ultimate goal is to find and keep a job!
